

PERONNE VIEWED ONE OF OBJECTS NOW ACHIEVED

With the Capture By the French of La Maisonnette Hill, Peronne, the German Base, Is in Plain View.

Fighting in East Concentrates Near Kovel, With No Important Gains By Either Army.

(Associated Press Cable)
LONDON, JULY 11.—WITH THE CAPTURE BY THE FRENCH OF LA MAISONNETTE HILL, WHICH DOMINATES THE VALLEY OF THE SOMME, AND FROM WHICH EVERYTHING THAT HAPPENS IN PERONNE CAN BE OBSERVED, ONE OF THE PRIMARY OBJECTS OF THE ANGLO-FRENCH OFFENSIVE HAS BEEN ACHIEVED.

The two armies are now engaged in an effort to organize and extend the limits of the ground they have gained and in repelling German counter attacks, which are directed particularly against the British to the north of the river, where they succeeded in gaining a footing in Trones Wood.

At that point, however, the British have been able to make some progress, although necessarily slow, against well fortified positions. The French are engaged in throwing a steady stream of fire around Peronne.

The Germans, on their part, are heavily shelling the allied front from Lens to the Belgian coast, but thus far there has been no attempt at infantry action except for the usual raids in which both sides engaged.

The Russians continue their advance toward Kovel and are now engaged in a pitched battle along the banks of the Stokhod, which they have crossed at some points. On the rest of the eastern front, there has been continued fighting with no important changes.

Both sides are concentrating their efforts on the Lutsk salient, in the east of Kovel. In the Caucasus and Mesopotamia the fighting between the Turks and Russians continue. The weather is extremely hot in this region that sustained efforts are impossible.

BRITISH PRESS LINES BACK

London, July 11.—The British captured Contalmaison, on the French front last night, the War Office announces today. Several lines of trenches in the Ametz Wood were taken by the British. Heavy fighting continues in Trones Wood.

NO OBJECTION TO INSPECTION

Capt. Konig Says to Go as Far as We Like in Sizing Up Big Sub.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Baltimore, July 11.—There will be no objection on the part of Captain Paul Koenig, commander of the German submarine Deutschland to an inspection of his craft by officers of the United States Navy. This was announced by Captain Koenig today after the arrival from Washington of Captain C. F. Hughes and two of the Navy's submarine experts, assigned to aid the collector of the port in determining the status of the vessel.

PRISONERS CAPTURED

(Associated Press Cable)
Petrograd, July 11.—The approximate total of prisoners taken by the Russians during the operations up to July 10 amount to 5,620 officers and 266,000 men, according to the War Office.

THEY INSIST

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 11.—Representations have been made to the State Department by the British and French Embassies setting up the claim that the German merchant submarine Deutschland is potentially a warship, even though designed and used as a merchantman. The Department will take the embassies' views under consideration, in connection with the report of Captain Hughes, the American naval expert who is making a physical examination of the big submarine in search of any warlike equipment.

Berlin, July 11.—The Austrian Admiralty announced today that an Austrian cruiser had sunk four or five British armoured patrol boats.

Only nine men from the British vessels were rescued.

main body of Villa forces retreating from Jimenez attacked Parral, 50 miles to the southwest, but were defeated by the Carranza garrison after a savage battle, according to an official report received today by General Trevino.

The report sent by General Garcia, commander at Parral, said the bandits suffered heavy loss and retreated to Sombreretillo, a few miles southeast of Parral.

It adds that if they make a stand there, the deciding battle of the Villa campaign probably will be fought late today or tomorrow, as the de facto Government's cavalry is within striking distance.

General Garcia declared the fighting was very savage. He said it was evidently the intention of the bandits to drive off the Parral garrison, so the town could be looted and ammunition obtained.

It was officially reported that the bandits are cropping the ears of prisoners who refuse to join them.

ARGUMENTS TO SAVE ORPET

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Waukegan, Ill., July 11.—Argument for the defense was begun today by Leslie P. Hanna in behalf of Will H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Marian Lambert. "The defendant," said Mr. Hanna, "took the stand as a fair witness. The shock of his arrest and of Marian's death had worn off. He was no longer the frightened youth who, without counsel, talked erratically perhaps just after his arrest. "It would have been folly for him to have taken the stand unless he told the truth and nothing but the truth."

THE EIGHTH LEAVES SOON

Ohio Regiment Is Ready and Anxious for Orders to Border Service.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Willis, Columbus, July 11.—Indications today were that the Eighth Regiment, from northeastern Ohio, and the Second Ambulance Corps, of Columbus, will be ordered to leave for the Mexican border shortly, possibly tomorrow.

Officers of both units today received orders to place their equipment in order for a sudden move.

It is known that for several days the railroads have been prepared to handle the first contingent of Ohio troops to leave Camp Willis.

Further evidence of friction is developing between Ohio National Guard officers and Federal officers concerning the quality of equipment being issued to the Guard.

SUB BOAT UNLOADING ITS CARGO

British Embassy Raises Close Question on Exportation of Nickel.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Baltimore, July 11.—American naval officers, detailed by the Navy Department to determine the status of the German submarine Deutschland, went aboard the craft today.

Captain Paul Koenig, the commander, was not aboard, but the officers were shown through the vessel by the marine superintendent of the North German Line.

Captain Koenig today made a statement to the custom officials that he expected to get away within ten days.

He had been told that if he remained longer than two weeks the Deutschland's wireless would be sealed up.

Baltimore, July 11.—The German merchant submarine Deutschland begun to discharge her cargo this morning.

The Deutschland cargo will be placed in a bonded warehouse, to be disposed of later by the local representatives of the vessel's owners.

A question has arisen whether the submarine will be permitted to take back to Germany a large quantity of nickel that is on the dock to which she is moored.

Shipment of nickel to the United States from Canada, which is the world's greatest producer of this metal, has been allowed on condition that its distribution would be so controlled that none of it could reach the Central Powers.

The Canadian Government is said to be considering the new situation.

FLOOD FOLLOWS THE BIG STORM

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Atlanta, Ga., July 11.—Flood waters on most of the rivers and streams of Georgia and Alabama resulting from recent heavy rains are receding today, but at Macon the crest has caused a rise in the river and many families have been forced to abandon their homes.

There is heavy loss of crops, which have all been ruined along the banks of the flooded rivers.

NEARBY CITIES FEAR EXODUS FROM NEW YORK

New Jersey Towns Establish Quarantine.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, July 11.—Communities immediately surrounding New York City show increasing fear that they will be infected with infantile paralysis from children fleeing the plague in the metropolis.

A number of cities and towns in New Jersey and New York have established quarantine, and some are turning back all children from New York City.

Patterson, N. J., which has had one death from the disease, has excluded all children, no matter from whence they come.

It was announced that more than 500,000 children from New York City have already been deported.

Warning has been given here against violation of the sanitary code. The maximum penalty for the offense is one year imprisonment and $500 fine.

It is estimated that more than 1,000 persons were fined yesterday for violation of the code. Most of the offenders threw garbage into the street or left cans uncovered.

The exodus of children from the uninfected parts of the city continues, and it is estimated that several thousand go each day.

DEATH LIST IS GROWING

Thirty-two Deaths and 195 New Cases of Infantile Paralysis in New York.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, July 11.—A large increase in the number of deaths and new cases in the epidemic of infantile paralysis was reported today.

During the last 24 hours, 195 new cases developed in the five boroughs of New York City, and there were 32 deaths.

NATION WIDE WARFARE ON THE EPIDEMIC

Instructions Mailed Broadcast By Federal Health Board.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—Instructions for state and city authorities concerning means of preventing spread of infantile paralysis was completed today by the Public Health Service to be mailed through out the United States.

It recommends isolation of patients for six or eight weeks, and persons coming in contact with them, and a general strengthening of all sanitary precautions.

Reports to the Health Service today indicated that infantile paralysis is not epidemic, except in New York City. Elsewhere, the number of cases is barely above normal.

Authorities of a number of states are considering the lead of California, which plans to demand that persons coming from infected areas show physician's certificate of freedom from contact.

A general board of Public Health Service met again to complete plans for fighting infantile paralysis. Congress will be urged to hasten appropriation of $100,000 for this purpose.

CARRANZA IS MILDLY HURRIED

Border Consul Makes Favorable Report of Morale of De-facto Troops.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—General Carranza has been notified that negotiations for the settlement of the border difficulties need not await the return of Secretary Lansing from his vacation.

It is expected here that Carranza will propose a formal joint conference rather than informal conversation between Ambassador Arredondo and the State Department.

American officials will accede to any plan which assures quick action.

The War Department officials had no report upon, and discounted, rumors of a revolt in Carranza's garrison at Chihuahua City.

The Villa bandits who attacked the Carranza garrison at Jimenez and Corralitos last week, were reported today to have separated into two divisions, one going northward toward the Texas border and the other pushing toward Chihuahua, in Durango state.

A message from General Garcia, Carranza consul at El Paso, said that troops of the de facto Government, in sufficient number to destroy the bandits, had followed them in close pursuit.

LORRIMER BEGINS LIFE OVER AGAIN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, July 11.—William Lorimer, former United States Senator, today started out to restore his fortune with the aid of an organization of 4,000 depositors of the defunct La Salle Street Trust & Savings Bank, who lost money in the failure of that institution, of which he was president.

At a mass meeting held last night the depositors pledged themselves to assist Lorimer in his plans to reimburse them for "every dollar they had lost."

IMPEACHMENT CASE TABLED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—Impeachment proceedings against H. Snowden Marshall, United States Attorney at New York, were tabled today by the House Judiciary Committee, which, by a decided vote, adopted a resolution recommending to the House that no further proceedings be taken against him.

ASSAULT CASE TO BE HEARD TOMORROW

SERVICES HONOR J. A. TWAY

The funeral services of Mr. J. Austin Tway, held at the Staunton M. E. church Monday morning were throughout a fine tribute to one of the splendid men of the county, and for eight years Superintendent of the Children's Home; and assembled relatives and friends from every portion of Fayette, although the representation from Paint township, Mr. Tway's former home, was especially large.

There was also a good representation of Masons—the order with which Mr. Tway had been actively identified.

Rev. John Sudlow, pastor of the M. E. church, conducted impressive services, reading a beautifully written and appreciative memoir.

The minister spoke eloquently of the deceased, and voiced the deep sorrow of the Staunton church in losing so valuable a member. He offered all that was possible of comfort to the wife and daughters, and the close relatives in his remarks.

A quartet, Messrs. Noah Binner, Glenn Lee, Orpha Wilson and Luther Brakefield, sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Nearer My God To Thee." Mr. Wilson sang "Does Jesus Care," as a solo.

The burial was made in the family lot of the Bloomingburg cemetery and the funeral procession, together with the many friends of the upper part of the county, found waiting at the cemetery, formed one of the largest auto funerals ever seen in the county.

Six Knights Templar were the pallbearers: Sir Knights Harrison F. Brown, Ed L. Bush, Frank Christopher, Wilson Bachert, Dr. W. E. Robinson, E. J. Light.

The flowers were wonderfully beautiful and in great profusion from a host of relatives and friends. Among the special designs was the cross and crown from Garfield Commandery No. 28; square and compass from the Blue Lodge of Sedalia; casket sprays from the Staunton Sunday school; the Young Ladies' class of Staunton Sunday school and the W. C. T. U. of Staunton.

Among those here from a distance were the aged father of Mrs. Tway, Mr. B. F. Badger of London; her brother, Judge Clinton Badger and daughter Miss Minnie of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tway, Mr. John Tway and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Wood of Mt. Sterling; Mr. John Whiteside, of Leesburg; Mr. Jesse Whiteside and family of London; Eminent Commander Fullerton and wife of Greenfield.

MEMOIR.

James Austin Tway, youngest child of John and Elizabeth Tway, was born near Union Chapel, Fayette county, O., July 6, 1858, and died July 8, 1916, after a brief illness of heart trouble; aged 58 years and two days.

He was married to Mary E. Badger, December 24, 1884. To this union three children were born: Alice (now Mrs. H. D. Parrett), Elsie, and a daughter who died in infancy.

In early life Austin showed rich natural gifts and an ambition to turn them to useful account. He loved people—he loved nature—he loved knowledge. His warm heartedness and genuine interest in his fellow beings made him friends wherever he mingled with people. His faith in mankind and his optimistic view of life bound his friends to him. He was interested in education and gave a number of years to academic studies, then turned his training to useful service by teaching in the public schools of Madison, Clark and Fayette counties. He was interested in the education of his two daughters who were urged to finish their courses of study in the Ohio State University.

As a teacher he had the happy faculty of inspiring boys and girls—a teacher's rarest gift—to develop their natural gifts and fill the largest possible place in life's opportunities for efficient and useful service to mankind.

He had a deep interest in child life—especially the child that was handicapped in its struggle of life. He was willing to give eight years of his most useful life to help the unfortunate children of the county, as superintendent of the Children's Home. His broad sympathies, open heartedness and cheerful disposition made him a boon companion of the young people.

His influence over those who came in daily contact with his exemplary life will bear fruit for better citizenship in future years.

He was public spirited. He not only kept himself informed on national questions, but he gave time and thought to the study of local conditions. He willingly shared in all efforts to better the community in which he lived.

With all his liking for people, he was domestic in his tastes. He was happily married—he loved his home. His smile and love for good, wholesome fun contributed no little part to the bright cheerful home life that he enjoyed so thoroughly. He basked in the radiant happiness of his own hearthstone. He was a good conversationalist—he loved an exchange of opinions—or the give and take of a lively conversation, but his thrusts never bore a sting.

He had a splendid voice and with his gift of song he gladdened the lives of those about him. For he constantly went about his work singing or whistling. This gift of song and love for music made him a valued member of the choir and Sunday school at Union Chapel, where he served for years as superintendent of the Sunday school.

On removing from the Children's Home to his home at Staunton over a year ago he transferred his church activities to the latter place and was made superintendent of the Sunday school at the beginning of this year.

In his early manhood while a student in college he yielded to religious convictions that developed his life into a beautiful Christian character. He was constant and sincere in his belief which kept him during life and sustained him when he felt the conscious pangs of death announcing the final summons.

His death was as beautiful as his life had been.

Above all his faith in God sustained and soothed him with an unflinching trust so that he approached the grave—

"Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

COWBOYS HERE ON LONG TRIP

"Montanna Jack" and Pal Riding 8500 Miles on $3500 Wager—Must Complete Trip in 16 Months—Two Men, Four Horses and Dog in Outfit.

Two cowboys from Montana, in the midst of an 8500-mile journey from coast to coast with stops at nearly all important points in the country, stopped in this city over night, and resumed their long trip early Tuesday, headed toward Chillicothe, from thence to Gallipolis, and on to Philadelphia, New York, Washington, D. C., swinging southward and passing through the southern states on the return trip.

The two men, the leader of whom was "Montana Jack," started from Montana several months ago and thus far have completed all the terms of their contract. They are on a $3500.00 wager to make the trip of 8500 miles in 16 months, and must have the same horses and dog with which they started.

Every foot of the trip must be made horseback, and the dog must travel upon its own legs throughout the trip. A set of shoes was worn by the dog to protect its feet. One set had been worn out and was exhibited by the two men.

The cow boys brought with them a breeze of the "wild and woolly," being garbed in typical cowboy costume, fully equipped. Two of the horses are used for pack purposes.

Part of their expenses are defrayed by selling post cards and giving roping exhibitions.

The Deutschland Arrives

The daring German navigators again added a brilliant achievement to their already long list when the big German U-boat Deutschland, carrying hundreds of tons of dye stuffs and mail, slipped quietly past the Virginia Capes during the latter part of Sunday night and came to anchor out of Baltimore in Chesapeake Bay. Another impossibility had been made possible by the thoroughness of German builders and the intelligence and daring of German navigators.

The pessimists who ridiculed the proposal as a fanciful dream, as a fabulous tale of the sea serpent or Flying Dutchman myth were amazed to read that the rumored voyage of a submarine merchantman through the North Sea across the Atlantic, passing the blockade of Great Britain and safe into the closely patrolled neutral zone which lies off the American coast, had not only been undertaken but actually accomplished without mishap.

This great war has furnished to history a list of marvelous achievements on land, on sea, in the air, under the ground and under the sea, but none of the marvelous feats of accomplishment surpass that of the Deutschland voyage.

In sixteen days the U-boat made the voyage, going three hundred miles out of her way.

Why? To demonstrate the capability of the German people?

Not solely because that does not always pay in war.

Primarily to get a valuable cargo to this port and to receive in return another valuable cargo of nickel and rubber, sorely needed by the German army.

Secondly, to test the possibility of undersea navigation by merchantmen.

How far Germany can go in the use of sub-boats to relieve the serious menace of British mastery of the sea is the big ultimate question.

That's the practical side of the achievement.

As to the other side—well may humanity ask what next?

Quiet Campaigns

With the passing of the Mexican crisis it is natural to suppose that activity in the realm of politics will take a more prominent position in the news and comments of the day.

That supposition, however, it must be admitted, finds little justification in the events as they have come along in turn during the last ten days. That there is very "little doing" in national politics is clearly evident. Issues of the ordinary political brand are scarce this year and the few which the political leaders have manufactured have boomeranged sadly. Candidates and leaders of the opposition to President Wilson have been compelled, by the rapid shifting of conditions, to adopt a policy of "watchful waiting" which makes them decidedly impatient but is, nevertheless a welcome relief to the people.

The voters of Ohio, upon purely local issues, are beginning now to show some real interest in local campaigns which are now well launched and under way.

There are many matters of importance concerning the welfare of the commonwealth, to be seriously considered by Ohio voters this fall and the issues are plainly made. So far, however, as national affairs are concerned, although it is well along in July there is practically no issue joined between the contending forces.

A remarkable condition in the history of American politics.

Changes Suggested

The Ohio State Bar Association is holding its annual meeting at Cedar Point and among other interesting suggestions made is that one by Judge E. B. Kinkead of Columbus, who suggests that the present three division system of Ohio courts of record be done away with and a new two division system adopted—one trial court and one review court.

The suggestion of Judge Kinkead is important for two reasons, the first because of the merit of the suggestion. If Judge Kinkead's suggestion is adopted it means less expense, less delay and less uncertainty of result—that's certain.

Whether the litigation of the state could be disposed of without three reviewing courts is questionable. However, objection could be done away with by increasing the court of review.

The suggestion is important for another reason. It is proof that the legal profession is awake to the fact that it's court procedure is sadly in need of change—revolutionary change and once the members of the bar realize the necessity for change in courts and procedures that change is certain to come sooner or later.

The lawyers are deserving of their reputation for ultra-conservatism, but it is only a question of time until the radicals will force a change in conditions and radicals will creep into the ranks of the legal profession just as they do into every other line of activity. They may not be so welcome there as they would be elsewhere, but they will get in and once in will make themselves heard.

Poetry For Today

A HAND ON THE SHOULDER.
When a man ain't got a cent,
And he's feeling kind of blue,
And the clouds hang dark and heavy
And won't let the sunshine through,
It's a great thing, O my brethren,
For a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.
It makes a man feel curious;
It makes the tear drops start,
And you sort o' feel a flutter
In the region of the heart;
You can look up and meet his eyes;
You don't know what to say
When his hand is on your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.
Oh, the world's a curious compound,
With its honey and its gall;
With its cares and bitter crosses—
But a good world after all.
And a good God must have made it—
Leastways, that is what I say
When a hand is on my shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

GIRL NEARLY DROWNED AS FRIENDS LAUGH

Others Think Expert Is Joking Until Gallant Young Man Pulls Her to Safety.

San Francisco.—A sensational rescue from drowning, in which the leading roles were played by Miss Jewel Welch, twenty years old and pretty, and Harry A. Clark, engineer with the Royal Insurance company, was staged in the waters of the Larkspur estuary.

Miss Welch, who with a party of friends was making a week end visit on board Clark's houseboat Rockaway, attempted to swim from the boat to the shore, 500 feet. She reached shore in safety and then plunged into the water to swim back to the ark.

Suddenly she was caught by the strong undertow of the stream and disappeared from sight. Friends on the deck of the boat, knowing that Miss Welch was an expert swimmer, believed that she was "doing stunts."

She finally appeared above the surface and cried for help, beating the water wildly.

Clark, who was standing on the deck fully clothed, plunged in and reached the spot just as she sank beneath the water. Clark dived and caught her by the hair.

Spectators on shore looked calmly on, thinking it was a moving picture thriller. In a few minutes Clark had the girl on board the boat.

Greatest Quartet In America Is Coming to Local Chautauqua

METROPOLITAN QUARTET.

ONLY an article of superior merit ever achieves in the minds of Americans the distinction of being called "standard." There is no exception to this rule in the realm of music. When a musical organization comes to be the basis of comparison by which similar organizations are judged it has achieved a position which comes to but few.

Such a proud position is occupied by the Metropolitan Male Quartet, known as the Master Singers of Chautauqua, which for a number of years past has been recognized as standard. To be as good as the Metropolitans has been considered the highest praise which could be bestowed upon a Lyceum or Chautauqua male quartet, and aspiring organizations have been proud indeed to be compared with them.

Four voices of superior merit unite to make this organization exceptional. As soloists the members of the company have won distinction. Unusual blending qualities make their ensemble work notable. They present male quartet singing at its highest point of development. Musical excellence is never permitted to be eclipsed by freak presentation or cheap burlesque.

When the Metropolitans come to the Chautauqua it will be worth your while to hear them if only for the purpose of noting how superlatively good a male quartet can be and how much the brand of quartet music has improved since the days when you aspired to be a member of a male quartet and disturbed the summer evenings with discordant attacks upon "Old Black Joe" and kindred classics.

The Metropolitans have even been called "the best" male quartet on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platform. That's a matter of personal opinion. You are entitled to yours, but don't decide without hearing them.

THE HERALD SOON TO HAVE A NEW HOME

Work on the Modern, Specially Planned Building Is to Be Commenced Immediately on South Fayette Street.

New Structure Will Be Commodious and Handsome Appearing.

Newest and Most Modern Equipment Is Now in Process of Erection, and Will Be Installed as Soon as the Building Is Completed.

The Herald is to have a new home!

And this home is to be thoroughly modern in every detail, with up-to-the-minute equipment, made necessary by the ever growing demands of the public for service, and because the citizens of Washington and Fayette county have demonstrated their desire for an independent, metropolitan newspaper.

The new home of The Herald will be located on South Fayette street, immediately south of the Gossard Garage, where the large lot has been purchased of Mr. George Inskeep. The contract has been let for the erection of a modern building especially constructed for newspaper purposes. Work on the new block is to be commenced at once, and the structure, to be built of steel, brick, stone, concrete and tile, is to be completed and ready for occupancy not later than the middle of October.

The site fronts on Fayette street 41 1/4 feet and extends back 165 feet to the alley. It is ideally located in the business district of the city within a few moments' walk from any part of the business section and offers great possibilities for a splendid newspaper plant—such as will be constructed.

The Herald Block is to be two stories and basement, with handsome pressed brick front. The two stories and basement will extend back a distance of 40 feet, while the first story will extend back a total distance of 110 feet. The entire structure is to be heated by steam and electrically lighted and equipped throughout.

In every way the structure will be an attractive addition to South Fayette street and to the city generally.

The business office, editorial and reportorial rooms will occupy the front part of the first floor and be entirely separate from the mechanical part of the plant. These rooms will be reached by a handsome tiled floor vestibule entrance, and the rooms will be lighted by large plate glass and prism glass windows.

The office and other rooms will be arranged and equipped with new and specially constructed fixtures.

The main composing room and press room will be 31 by 60 feet. The arrangement, with modern equipment, will give the composing rooms great capacity. This will be scientifically arranged so that the greatest efficiency may be obtained with the least effort. The arrangement and construction of the composing rooms has been planned especially for the newspaper plant. Nothing has been overlooked in providing light and air—plenty of both.

The basement rooms will be used for storage purposes, and the building from top to bottom and front to rear will be constructed along the most approved sanitary lines.

Terms of the contract call for an immediate beginning of the work, and its completion not later than October 15th of this year.

New machinery and equipment generally will be features of the new home of The Herald. This equipment includes a brand new Goss Comet press now in process of construction at Chicago with a capacity of 4,000 newspapers each hour. The press represents the very latest designs in printing machinery, and the blank paper in huge rolls is attached to the press and comes out in the printed and folded newspaper.

In addition to this newest and most up-to-date press, the most modern Linotype machines, new job presses and other equipment to correspond will be installed.

All machinery will be electrically driven, individual motors being used and all line shafting will thus be eliminated.

All antiquated machinery and other equipment will be cast aside giving more room and a plant, in every way, in keeping with demands of the public upon The Herald and the community in which it is printed and circulates.

For a long time the growing need of a new home and more modern equipment and larger facilities has been realized. The press of business being such that it was deemed necessary to install facilities to insure prompt service in every way. The construction of plans for the new home and equipment are the result.

While looking mainly to capacity and speed in equipment, the health and comfort of the folks who build The Herald every day, the appearance of the new home of The Herald has not been lost sight of.

It will be a structure which will be pleasing to the eye as well as one capacious and durable.

Coal has been missed from cars at Fayette Junction for sometime, and receiving a tip Monday evening that there would be something doing about the coal cars later in the evening, Detective Fisher went to the scene and the arrests followed.

No part of either fine is to be remitted by Mayor Oster. Both men declared that never again would they be found in such a situation.

JONES WOMAN IS SENTENCED TO THE "PEN"

Addie Bay Jones Enters Plea of Guilty of Killing Monk Sammons and Will Be Taken to Ohio Penitentiary Tomorrow to Serve One to 20 Years.

Addie Bay Jones, following a plea of guilty to a charge of manslaughter for the killing of Monk Sammons, has been sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for an indeterminate period, which in the case of manslaughter is one to twenty years.

The woman, who was represented by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, was to have been tried upon a charge of murder in the second degree, her case having been set for Tuesday of this week.

Realizing that the odds were against her acquittal and desiring to escape the trying ordeal of a long trial, the woman expressed her willingness to plead guilty to a charge of manslaughter, and this was permitted by the court.

The woman faced Judge Carpenter late Monday afternoon and pleaded guilty, whereupon she was sentenced to the penitentiary, to be taken to that institution Wednesday.

Mrs. Jones had little to say before sentence was passed, other than asking for the leniency of the court.

Her crime consisted of the shooting of Monk Sammons because the latter had been with another woman, the act being prompted by jealousy.

After a hard fight for life the wounded man passed away some 17 days after the shooting, death resulting from a hemorrhage due to the wound in his lungs.

Mrs. Parker Tanzey of Columbus has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, this week.

FRENCH EXTEND THE LINE

Now Menacing the Fortress of Peronne.

STORM GERMAN POSITIONS

British Make Only Slight Progress on the Somme, Suffering Reverse in the Trones Wood—Russians Make Gains in Their Drive Against Kovel. Austrians Repel Italian Attacks. Verdun Campaign.

London, July 11.—Paris reports further progress on the Somme. The French carried by storm a number of positions and extended their lines menacingly closer to the fortress of Peronne.

The British made only slight progress and suffered a reverse in the Trones wood.

It must be emphasized, however, that the chief reason for the advance on the part of the French is the fact that the Germans concentrate the whole fury of their counter offensive operations upon General Sir Douglas Haig's troops, practically ignoring the French. They know full well that the French advance must sooner or later come to a standstill if the British do not advance correspondingly, and, since the French carried the greater part of the ground in the initial rush of the drive, the Teutons seem bent upon holding the British back at all cost, hoping that the French progress will automatically cease.

It is in the Trones wood that the Germans have been putting up one of the most stubborn fights since the Somme drive began. The wood has a triangle shape measuring some 400 yards from north to south, with a southern base of 400 yards. The Germans have converted it into a veritable labyrinth of trenches and wire entanglements. The battle in the wood is still raging full blast.

Paris reported success in the Champagne, west of Butte de Mesnil. Here French troops, in two attacks, penetrated the German first line trenches on a front of 500 meters. The capture of only ten prisoners indicates the Germans did not render very stubborn resistance.

Germans Active at Verdun.

The forces of the German crown prince are still pounding heavily against the French positions at Froide Terre, Fleury and the Fumin wood. In the Verdun sector, but so far as the official statements show, the actions have been confined to bombardments.

There has apparently been no halt of the Russian advance toward Kovel in Volhynia. The German defenses along the Stokhod river have been unable to stay the progress of the Russians, who, though strongly opposed, have crossed the river at various points.

In the Dyvina sector and east of Baranovitch the Germans have delivered strong counter attacks and are undertaking extensive offensive operations.

The fighting between the Italians and Austrians continues with unabated fury, the Austrian official statement describing the repulse of Alpine forces between the Brenta and the Etsch rivers.

The German war office claims that all French and British attacks on the Somme failed ultimately. Wherever a temporary footing was gained by the allies, German counter attacks "quickly ejected the enemy," the statement asserts. It is admitted that Trones wood was penetrated, and that the French won some ground on the Maisonette farm and around Barleux, but it is added that all ground temporarily lost was captured later and consolidated.

OF COURSE

(By American Press)

Washington, July 11.—Pending further investigation, the United States will view the German submarine Deutschland as an undersea freight ship, entitled to ply its trade between German and American ports.

This government's preliminary attitude was determined on following report of Collector Ryan of Baltimore, who stated that the Deutschland did not carry arms, that she was manned by a merchant crew and that her papers were in order. Acting Secretary of State Polk decided to accept the presumption that the Deutschland is what she is represented to be, pending an investigation to prove or disprove the announced status of the vessel.

by direction of the state department, Captain C. F. Hughes of the navy, formerly inspector of ships for the general board, has been assigned to give an expert opinion as to whether the Deutschland is or is not a warship. He will be assisted by other naval officers.

Meanwhile the British and French governments have communicated what amounts to a protest against the Deutschland's presence in an American port. The form of this communication is a request for the United States to determine the exact status of the vessel.

BAY STATE

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., July 11.—Forty militiamen of Company L, Ninth Massachusetts infantry, were stricken with ptomaine poisoning and are still in the regiment field hospital. Major Fred L. Bogan of Boston, commanding the regiment hospital corps, declared most of the men would recover. Poisoning was traced to canned salmon.

In addition to the national guard troops, which are estimated by brigade officers to be at least 15,000, there are 5,000 regular troops in El Paso, Fort Bliss and the border near here.

Plans for the biggest war game ever undertaken in the United States are now being given the finishing touches at General George Bell's headquarters at Fort Bliss, and the militia brigades here, as well as the regulars, are to undergo the stiffest kind of a preparation for possible hostilities, the work including night alarms, night marches and calls to repel attack under every sort of condition.

WILSON SPEAKS TO BIG THROGS

Favors Peace Through Mutual Understanding.

Detroit, July 11.—Speaking to 3,500 people in Arcadia hall, hundreds of whom were delegates to the World's Salesmanship congress, President Wilson said that fighting results in hatreds that ruin opportunities for opening trade and civilization. "We must respect the sovereignty of Mexico," the president said. "I say this for the benefit of those who wish to butt in. Mexico feels we do not wish to help her, but to possess her. This is due to the manner in which some have tried to exploit her possessions. I will not help these men."

The president declared that the merchant marine, which some are "so slow in giving us," will be a great help to the business interests of the United States.

In order to gain foreign business, however, he added, it will be necessary for American business men to adapt the goods to the demands of other countries and not try to force their own ideas on other markets.

At Toledo the president made a five minute talk at the Union station. "The United States will go to war only in case of unmistakable necessity," he said. "Our rights, our border citizens and our sovereignty must be respected. We will respect Mexico's sovereignty in return."

The president was met and welcomed by Congressman Isaac R. Sherwood. Congressman Sherwood lauded the chief executive in a short talk, declaring the president stands only for peace, progress and prosperity.

LOOKS GOOD

(By American Press)

London, July 11.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that the bill for the establishment of a government for Ireland, as agreed to by the bulk of the Nationalists and Unionists, will be submitted to parliament next week. The premier urged the house to lend its support to the bill, emphasizing that the present opportunity may never occur again. The bill will contain the provision for the exclusion of the six Ulster counties. Under the plan the military and naval forces remain under the control of the imperial parliament. The imperial government will appoint the judges of the appeal court, which is to be established in Dublin. The bill will remain in force during the war and twelve months thereafter.

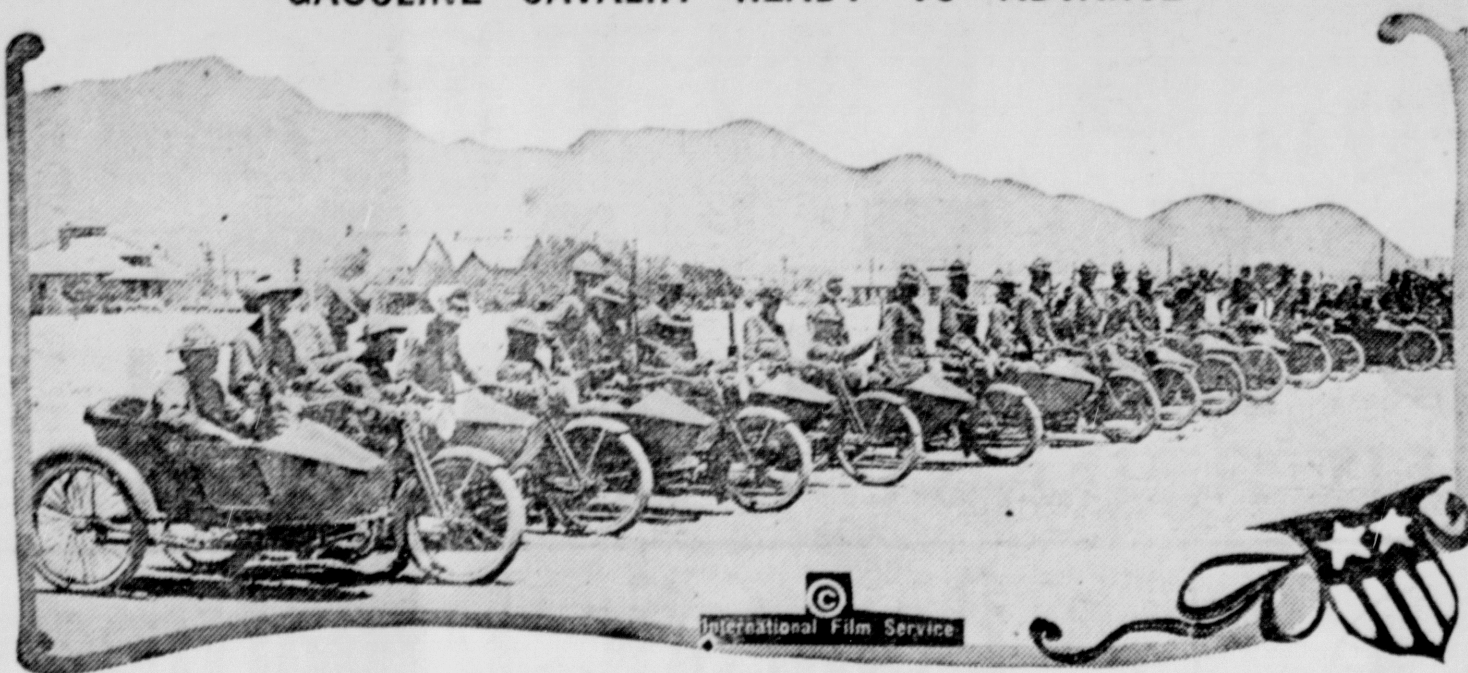

The Irish parliament will consist of the members at present returned to the imperial parliament. The Dublin appeal court will be appointed by the imperial executive.

REVENUE MEASURE BY HOUSE

Designed to Raise Approximately $200,000,000.

VOTE STOOD 240 TO 140

Thirty Republicans and One Independent Join With the Democrats in Supporting the Measure—Amendment Adopted Striking Out Tax on Bankers—Features of the Bill as Passed by the House.

Washington, July 11.—By a vote of 240 to 140, the administration's revenue bill, designed to raise approximately $200,000,000 additional revenue, passed the house.

Democratic members voted solidly for the bill and thirty Republicans and one independent supported it.

The minority succeeded in amending the bill in several particulars, but no vital change was made in any section except that relating to the levy of special internal taxes. The house struck from this section the tax on bankers. As reported the bill carried a tax on bankers of $1 per $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits.

Several changes were made in the tariff commission section. The salaries of the commissioners were reduced from $10,000 to $7,500, and the prohibition against former members of congress serving on the commission was eliminated.

The bill as passed creates a tariff commission, imposes a protective tariff on dyestuffs, repeals present stamp taxes and provides for new taxes on incomes, inheritances and war munitions profits.

Ohio bankers have been bombarding the members with telegrams opposing the tax on their capital. With the aid of Democratic votes, the Wood amendment, striking out the tax on bankers, was adopted, 202 to 167. The Ohio delegation divided almost on party lines on the Wood amendment. Representative Ashbrook was the only Ohio Democratic member voting for it. The Ohio Republican members all supported it.

LOOKS BRIGHT

(By American Press)

Baltimore, July 11.—Captain Paul Koenig of the commercial submarine Deutschland, supplementing previous statements, told how his vessel had lain at the bottom of the English channel one whole night, while British warships passed over it; how he and his crew played the gramophone beneath the waves; how they had lived on champagne and the best of foods; how they had openly cruised 3,800 miles, submerging only a few times for a few hours and doing only 90 miles under the surface during the entire trip. He also predicted the collapse of the British starvation blockade.

The captain said: "We are building for trade with the neutral countries great submarines that will go 13,000 miles without replenishment of fuel supply, that will carry, when we are ready to supply it, 1,000 or more tons of freight. Several of these boats are now building. The next one to come to this country will be named the Bremen and she will reach American shores within eight weeks. I may not reveal just when or just where she will be heard from on this side, but what I am telling you may be taken as a fact."

REPORTS PLEASE PLAGUE FIGHTERS

Decrease in Number of Deaths From Infantile Paralysis.

New York, July 11.—There were fourteen deaths from infantile paralysis during the last twenty-four hours, a decrease compared with the previous twenty-four hours. There is an increase, however, in the number of new cases, 103 having been reported. Sixty-eight of those are in Brooklyn, and 30 in Manhattan. The total death toll of the epidemic thus far is 238. Altogether 1,083 have been infected.

Health Commissioner Emerson was optimistic for the first time since the plague began. He said the decrease in the number of deaths was encouraging and the cases are not jumping alarmingly. Fear and imagination on the part of the parents do a great deal toward making the situation look worse than it is. Every baby that has a stomach ache or a cough, or some other slight ailment, is immediately carried by a solicitous mother to the hospital to be investigated, or an inspector is sent for.

Six thousand street cleaners have been put to work to clear up and sluice down all the city thoroughfares. The police are on a sharp lookout for all offenders of the sanitation laws. In the Tombs police court alone there are 148 violators arraigned.

WILL WORK FOR HUGHES' ELECTION

Warren, Michigan, and Ralph E. Williams, Oregon.

James B. Reynolds of Massachusetts was re-elected for another four years as secretary of the national committee.

ONLY 43,000 MOVED

New York, July 11.—Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the department of the east, announced that after three weeks since President Wilson's order for the mobilization of the national guard only 43,000 men have been sent to the front out of a possible 130,000 in his command of twenty-two states and the District of Columbia. This means, he declared, that there are 90,000 men yet to be sent to the border.

RIDES A FISH TO DEATH.

Hiram Also Keeps His Prize Despite State Game Wardens.

Appleton, Wis.—Riding a fish and killing it is not catching it. Such is the decision of the state game warden in the case of Hiram Beveridge.

The water in the Fox river has been low of late, and Hiram saw a six foot sturgeon in a shallow pool below the John street dam. He tried to catch it by the tail, but failed. Then he jumped and landed on its back. It was worse than riding a bucking broncho, but he seized a stone when the fish was floundering in shallow water and beat it to death.

Hiram's knees were scraped raw and his legs cut, but he got seventy pounds of fish and furnished the basis for a new legal decision to ring down the tugs.

AGAIN TURN TO RECRUITING

Mustering Work Completed in the Eighth, Fifth and Sixth Infantry and All But Two Companies of the Fourth—Smallpox Patients Removed From Camp Willis—Problem Put Up to Governor.

Columbus, July 11.—Mustering work at Camp Willis has been completed now in the Eighth, Fifth and Sixth infantry and all except Companies A of Cardington and F of Circleville of the Fourth. Authorization to muster in the latter two companies has been received.

It is still a race between the cavalry and the Eighth infantry as to which one will be the first reported to the war department as "reasonably equipped" to move to the border. Each completed turning its present property over to the federal government. To those whose equipment is found to be unserviceable and those that have none, new equipment will be issued.

After a week of mustering, physical examining and rejecting in the militia efforts again are turned to recruiting. Officers who prided themselves on having their commands up to war strength find them sadly depleted after the federal examiners get through with them.

Troop B of Columbus, First squadron of cavalry, which presented a full quota of 100 men, all of whom were considered "good bets," lost eleven men and have opened a recruiting office again.

Determining whether Ohio national guardsmen who are rejected by federal mustering officers at Camp Willis shall remain in the organized state militia or be rejected from these ranks as well, is a matter which Major Robert W. Mearns, chief mustering officer, has submitted to Governor Frank B. Willis. The governor has the question under advisement and will announce his decision soon.

The municipal health department will look after the two guardsmen at the mobilization camp who are victims of smallpox. The officials caused them to be removed to an emergency hospital outside the city limits. The two men who have the disease are: Dwight Morris, Defiance, and Charles Steele, Napoleon.

WHEN IS A WARSHIP?

(By American Press)
Washington, July 11.—The German super-submarine Deutschland is not a warship. She is not even an armed merchantman. She has no guns or armament of any kind aboard her. This was the report made to the treasury department by customs officials who boarded the submarine at Baltimore. The state department immediately was informed of the ship's status by Secretary McAdoo.

PICNIC GROUNDS HISTORIC SPOT

Until the recent Fish and Game picnic held on one of the large farms owned by Mr. Scott Beatty in the Waterloo vicinity, few knew that indications point to the existence of a wonderfully interesting memorial of the early activities of the North American Indians.

On what is known as the old Waldron farm, handed down to the present owner by his father, the late Mr. I. N. Beatty, is what would seem to have been one of the Indians' ceremonial rings used for the dances which were weird and picturesque features of the life of the Red Men.

This ring is 100 feet in diameter, 5 or 6 feet wide and worn to a depth of three feet, presumably by the feet of the dancers.

It is a most unusual place and its inspection recalled traditions which claim that this old Waldron farm was in early days the site of an Indian village.

There are mounds laid out as if for the purpose of defense and from them three high points rise towards the heavens as if to provide lookouts from which sentinels overlooked the valley and plains below.

So great was the interest taken in this Indian memorial that its claims to authentication as one of the early Indian landmarks of Ohio will be brought to the attention of Prof. Mills, of the Ohio State University, who has been prominently identified with Indian research work and who has accomplished much in this connection in the nearby counties of Ross and Adams.

Prof. Mills, his wife and daughter are now in Southern Ohio exploring along the lines of the Indians' early activities.

The men of the Fish and Game Association were much interested in learning from Mr. Beatty all that he could tell them of the Indian traditions centered around his farm. They also enjoyed viewing pictures and trophies brought by Mr. Beatty from Florida, where he spends the winters at his cottage on Coronado Beach, and indulges in his favorite sport—fishing.

Mr. Beatty brought over to the picnic the latest equipment for modern Isaac Waltons—in the deep sea fishing tackle and all accessories, the envy of every fisherman ambitious to land a big catch.

A PERTINENT QUESTION

Everybody knew that Mr. W. B. Rogers gallantly escorted his daughter, on a horse back ride to the Junior Camp Sunday afternoon and it was the correct supposition that the fact that Miss Rogers' escort for the day had been called away was responsible for the ride rather than Mr. Rogers' devotion to horse back riding.

But why, having had his appetite whetted by the ride, did Mr. Rogers turn over his mount to his son, reluctant to leave camp, and motor home?

No reward has as yet been offered for the answer, but it is a pertinent question.

CHANCE TO AID THE LOCAL BAND

Everybody now has an opportunity to aid the Washington Band and keep it together and up to a standard never before reached.

This opportunity is afforded by papers now in the hands of Mr. James Whelpley, where funds will be received for band concerts, the first of which will probably be given Wednesday night of next week.

During the past few days some 150 persons have been given the opportunity to aid in the commendable enterprise, and of that number only two persons did not give toward the concerts, and these two fellows could find no excuse for refusing, it is stated.

To insure a series of concerts all public spirited citizens must respond with a small sum toward concerts and to indicate to the Washington Band that their efforts are appreciated; that Washington and Fayette county citizens believe in them and will stand by them in making the organization a Civic Institution.

Citizens are urged not to wait until the subscription paper is presented, but to go to Mr. Whelpley or send amount to him without delay.

PERONNE VIEWED ONE OF OBJECTS NOW ACHIEVED

With the Capture By the French of La Maissonnette Hill, Peronne, the German Base, Is in Plain View.

Fighting in East Concentrates Near Kovel, With No Important Gains By Either Army.

(Associated Press Cable)

LONDON, JULY 11.—WITH THE CAPTURE BY THE FRENCH OF LA MAISSONNETTE HILL, WHICH DOMINATES THE VALLEY OF THE SOMME, AND FROM WHICH EVERYTHING THAT HAPPENS IN PERONNE CAN BE OBSERVED, ONE OF THE PRIMARY OBJECTS OF THE ANGLO-FRENCH OFFENSIVE HAS BEEN ACHIEVED.

The two armies are now engaged in an effort to organize and extend the limits of the ground they have gained and in repelling German counter attacks, which are directed particularly against the British to the north of the river, where they succeeded in gaining a footing in Trones Wood.

At that point, however, the British have been able to make some progress, although necessarily slow, against well fortified positions.

The French are engaged in throwing a steady stream of fire around Peronne.

The Germans, on their part, are heavily shelling the allied front from Lens to the Belgian coast, but thus far there has been no attempt at infantry action except for the usual raids in which both sides engaged.

The Russians continue their advance toward Kovel and are now engaged in a pitched battle along the banks of the Stokhod, which they have crossed at some points.

On the rest of the eastern front, there has been continued fighting with no important changes.

Both sides are concentrating their efforts on the Lutsk salient, in the Caucasus and Mesopotamia the fighting between the Turks and Russians continue. The weather is extremely hot in this region that sustained efforts are impossible.

BRITISH PRESS LINES BACK

London, July 11.—The British captured Contalmaison, on the French front last night, the War Office announces today.

Several lines of trenches in the Contalmaison were taken by the British.

Heavy fighting continues in Trones Wood.

NO OBJECTION TO INSPECTION

Capt. Konig Says to Go as Far as We Like in Sizing Up Big Sub.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Baltimore, July 11.—There will be no objection on the part of Captain Paul Koenig, commander of the German submarine Deutschland to an inspection of his craft by officers of the United States Navy. This was announced by Captain Koenig today after the arrival from Washington of Captain C. F. Hughes and two of the Navy's submarine experts, assigned to aid the collector of the port in determining the status of the vessel.

PRISONERS CAPTURED

(Associated Press Cable)

Petrograd, July 11.—The approximate total of prisoners taken by the Russians during the operations up to July 10 amount to 5,620 officers and 266,000 men, according to the War Office.

THEY INSIST

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—Representations have been made to the State Department by the British and French Embassies setting up the claim that the German merchant submarine Deutschland is potentially a warship, even though designed and used as a merchantman.

The Department will take the embassies' views under consideration, in connection with the report of Captain Hughes, the American naval expert who is making a physical examination of the big submarine in search of any warlike equipment.

Berlin, July 11.—The Austrian Admiralty announced today that an Austrian cruiser had sunk four or five British armoured patrol boats.

Only nine men from the British vessels were rescued.

main body of Villa forces retreating from Jimenez attacked Parral, 50 miles to the southwest, but were defeated by the Carranza garrison after a savage battle, according to an official report received today by General Trevino.

The report sent by General Garcia, commander at Parral, said the bandits suffered heavy loss and retreated to Sombrerillo, a few miles southeast of Parral.

It adds that if they make a stand there, the deciding battle of the Villa campaign probably will be fought late today or tomorrow, as the de facto Government's cavalry is within striking distance.

General Garcia declared the fighting was very savage. He said it was evidently the intention of the bandits to drive off the Parral garrison, so the town could be looted and ammunition obtained.

It was officially reported that the bandits are cropping the ears of prisoners who refuse to join them.

ARGUMENTS TO SAVE ORPET

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Waukegan, Ill., July 11.—Argument for the defense was begun today by Leslie P. Hanna in behalf of Will H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Marian Lambert.

"The defendant," said Mr. Hanna "took the stand as a fair witness. The shock of his arrest and of Marion's death had worn off. He was no longer the frightened youth who, without counsel, talked erratically perhaps just after his arrest."

"It would have been folly for him to have taken the stand unless he told the truth and nothing but the truth."

THE EIGHTH LEAVES SOON

Ohio Regiment Is Ready and Anxious for Orders to Border Service.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Willis, Columbus, July 11.—Indications today were that the Eighth Regiment, from northeastern Ohio, and the Second Ambulance Corps, of Columbus, will be ordered to leave for the Mexican border shortly, possibly tomorrow.

Officers of both units today received orders to place their equipment in order for a sudden move.

It is known that for several days the railroads have been prepared to handle the first contingent of Ohio troops to leave Camp Willis.

Further evidence of friction is developing between Ohio National Guard officers and Federal officers concerning the quality of equipment being issued to the Guard.

SUB BOAT UNLOADING ITS CARGO

British Embassy Raises Close Question on Exportation of Nickel.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Baltimore, July 11.—American naval officers, detailed by the Navy Department to determine the status of the German submarine Deutschland, went aboard the craft today.

Captain Paul Koenig, the commander, was not aboard, but the officers were shown through the vessel by the marine superintendent of the North German Line.

Captain Koenig today made a statement to the custom officials that he expected to get away within ten days.

He had been told that if he remained longer than two weeks the Deutschland's wireless would be sealed up.

Baltimore, July 11.—The German merchant submarine Deutschland began to discharge her cargo this morning.

The Deutschland cargo will be placed in a bonded warehouse, to be disposed of later by the local representatives of the vessel's owners.

A question has arisen whether the submarine will be permitted to take back to Germany a large quantity of nickel that is on the dock to which she is moored.

Shipment of nickel to the United States from Canada, which is the world's greatest producer of this metal, has been allowed on condition that its distribution would be so controlled that none of it could reach the Central Powers.

The Canadian Government is said to be considering the new situation.

FLOOD FOLLOWS THE BIG STORM

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Atlanta, Ga., July 11.—Flood waters on most of the rivers and streams of Georgia and Alabama resulting from recent heavy rains are receding today, but at Macon the crest has caused a rise in the river and many families have been forced to abandon their homes.

There is heavy loss of crops, which have all been ruined along the banks of the flooded rivers.

NEARBY CITIES FEAR EXODUS FROM NEW YORK

New Jersey Towns Establish Quarantine.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, July 11.—Communities immediately surrounding New York City show increasing fear that they will be infected with infantile paralysis from children fleeing the plague in the metropolis.

A number of cities and towns in New Jersey and New York have established quarantine, and some are turning back all children from New York City.

Patterson, N. J., which has had one death from the disease, has excluded all children, no matter from whence they come.

It was announced that more than 500,000 children from New York City have already been deported.

Warning has been given here against violation of the sanitary code. The maximum penalty for the offense is one year imprisonment and $500 fine.

It is estimated that more than 1,000 persons were fined yesterday for violation of the code. Most of the offenders threw garbage into the street or left cans uncovered.

The exodus of children from the uninfected parts of the city continues, and it is estimated that several thousand go each day.

DEATH LIST IS GROWING

Thirty-two Deaths and 195 New Cases of Infantile Paralysis in New York.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, July 11.—A large increase in the number of deaths and new cases in the epidemic of infantile paralysis was reported today.

During the last 24 hours, 195 new cases developed in the five boroughs of New York City, and there were 32 deaths.

NATION WIDE WARFARE ON THE EPIDEMIC

Instructions Mailed Broadcast By Federal Health Board.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—Instructions for state and city authorities concerning means of preventing spread of infantile paralysis was completed today by the Public Health Service to be mailed through out the United States.

It recommends isolation of patients for six or eight weeks, and persons coming in contact with them, and a general strengthening of all sanitary precautions.

Reports to the Health Service today indicated that infantile paralysis is not epidemic, except in New York City. Elsewhere, the number of cases is barely above normal.

Authorities of a number of states are considering the lead of California, which plans to demand that persons coming from infected areas show physician's certificate of freedom from contact.

A general board of Public Health Service met again to complete plans for fighting infantile paralysis.

Congress will be urged to hasten appropriation of $100,000 for this purpose.

CARRANZA IS MILDLY HURRIED

Border Consul Makes Favorable Report of Morale of De-facto Troops.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 11.—General Carranza has been notified that negotiations for the settlement of the border difficulties need not await the return of Secretary Lansing from his vacation.

It is expected here that Carranza will propose a formal joint conference rather than informal conversation between Ambassador Arredondo and the State Department.

American officials will accede to any plan which assures quick action.

The War Department officials had no report upon, and discounted, rumors of a revolt in Carranza's garrison at Chihuahua City.

The Villa bandits who attacked the Carranza garrison at Jimenez and Corralitos last week, were reported today to have separated into two divisions, one going northward toward the Texas border and the other pushing toward Chihuahua, in Durango state.

A message from General Garcia, Carranza consul at El Paso, said that troops of the de facto Government, in sufficient number to destroy the bandits, had followed them in close pursuit.

LORRIMER BEGINS LIFE OVER AGAIN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, July 11.—William Lorimer, former United States Senator, today started out to restore his fortune with the aid of an organization of 4,000 depositors of the defunct La Salle Street Trust & Savings Bank, who lost money in the failure of that institution, of which he was president.

At a mass meeting held last night the depositors pledged themselves to assist Lorimer in his plans to reimburse them for "every dollar they had lost."

ASSAULT CASE TO BE HEARD TOMORROW

Bobo was considerably worsted in the trouble between the two men.

SERVICES HONOR J. A. TWAY

The funeral services of Mr. J. Austin Tway, held at the Staunton M. E. church Monday morning were throughout a fine tribute to one of the splendid men of the county, and for eight years Superintendent of the Children's Home; and assembled relatives and friends from every portion of Fayette, although the representation from Paint township, Mr. Tway's former home, was especially large.

There was also a good representation of Masons—the order with which Mr. Tway had been actively identified.

Rev. John Sudlow, pastor of the M. E. church, conducted impressive services, reading a beautifully written and appreciative memoir.

The minister spoke eloquently of the deceased, and voiced the deep sorrow of the Staunton church in losing so valuable a member. He offered all that was possible of comfort to the wife and daughters, and the close relatives in his remarks.

A quartet, Messrs. Noah Binner, Glenn Lee, Orpha Wilson and Luther Brakefield, sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Nearer My God To Thee." Mr. Wilson sang "Does Jesus Care," as a solo.

The burial was made in the family lot of the Bloomingburg cemetery and the funeral procession, together with the many friends of the upper part of the county, found waiting at the cemetery, formed one of the largest auto funerals ever seen in the county.

Six Knights Templar were the pallbearers: Sir Knights Harrison F. Brown, Ed L. Bush, Frank Christopher, Wilson Bachert, Dr. W. E. Robinson, E. J. Light.

The flowers were wonderfully beautiful and in great profusion from a host of relatives and friends. Among the special designs was the cross and crown from Garfield Commandery No. 28; square and compass from the Blue Lodge of Sedalia; casket sprays from the Staunton Sunday school; the Young Ladies' class of Staunton Sunday school and the W. C. T. U. of Staunton.

Among those here from a distance were the aged father of Mrs. Tway, Mr. B. F. Badger of London; her brother, Judge Clinton Badger and daughter Miss Minnie of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tway, Mr. John Tway and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Wood of Mt. Sterling; Mr. John Whiteside, of Leesburg; Mr. Jesse Whiteside and family of London; Eminent Commander Fullerton and wife of Greenfield.

MEMOIR.

James Austin Tway, youngest child of John and Elizabeth Tway, was born near Union Chapel, Fayette county, O., July 6, 1858, and died July 8, 1916, after a brief illness of heart trouble; aged 58 years and two days.

He was married to Mary E. Badger, December 24, 1884. To this union three children were born—Alice (now Mrs. H. D. Parrett), Elsie, and a daughter who died in infancy.

In early life Austin showed rich natural gifts and an ambition to turn them to useful account. He loved people—he loved nature—he loved knowledge. His warm heartedness and genuine interest in his fellow beings made him friends wherever he mingled with people. His faith in mankind and his optimistic view of life bound his friends to him. He was interested in education and gave a number of years to academic studies, then turned his training to useful service by teaching in the public schools of Madison, Clark and Fayette counties. He was interested in the education of his two daughters who were urged to finish their courses of study in the Ohio State University.

As a teacher he had the happy faculty of inspiring boys and girls—a teacher's rarest gift—to develop their natural gifts and fill the largest possible place in life's opportunities for efficient and useful service to mankind.

He had a deep interest in child life—especially the child that was handicapped in its struggle of life. He was willing to give eight years of his most useful life to help the unfortunate children of the county, as superintendent of the Children's Home. His broad sympathies, open heartedness and cheerful disposition made him a boon companion of the young people.

His influence over those who came in daily contact with his exemplary life will bear fruit for better citizenship in future years.

He was public spirited. He not only kept himself informed on national questions, but he gave time and thought to the study of local conditions. He willingly shared in all efforts to better the community in which he lived.

With all his liking for people, he was domestic in his tastes. He was happily married—he loved his home. His smile and love for good, wholesome fun contributed no little part to the bright cheerful home life that he enjoyed so thoroughly. He basked in the radiant happiness of his own hearthstone. He was a good conversationalist—he loved an exchange of opinions—or the give and take of a lively conversation, but his thrusts never bore a sting.

He had a splendid voice and with his gift of song he gladdened the lives of those about him. For he constantly went about his work singing or whistling. This gift of song and love for music made him a valued member of the choir and Sunday school at Union Chapel, where he served for years as superintendent of the Sunday school.

On removing from the Children's Home to his home at Staunton over a year ago he transferred his church activities to the latter place and was made superintendent of the Sunday school at the beginning of this year.

In his early manhood while a student in college he yielded to religious convictions that developed his life into a beautiful Christian character. He was constant and sincere in his belief which kept him during life and sustained him when he felt the conscious pangs of death announcing the final summons.

His death was as beautiful as his life had been.

Above all his faith in God sustained and soothed him with an unfaltering trust so that he approached the grave—

"Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

COWBOYS HERE ON LONG TRIP

"Montanna Jack" and Pal Riding 8500 Miles on $3500 Wager—Must Complete Trip in 16 Months—Two Men, Four Horses and Dog in Outfit.

Two cowboys from Montana, in the midst of an 8500-mile journey from coast to coast with stops at nearly all important points in the country, stopped in this city over night, and resumed their long trip early Tuesday, headed toward Chillicothe, from thence to Gallipolis, and on to Philadelphia, New York, Washington, D. C., swinging southward and passing through the southern states on the return trip.

The two men, the leader of whom was "Montanna Jack," started from Montana several months ago and thus far have completed all the terms of their contract. They are on a $3500.00 wager to make the trip of 8500 miles in 16 months, and must have the same horses and dog with which they started.

Every foot of the trip must be made horseback, and the dog must travel upon its own legs throughout the trip. A set of shoes was worn by the dog to protect its feet. One set had been worn out and was exhibited by the two men.

The cow boys brought with them a breeze of the "wild and woolly," being garbed in typical cowboy costume, fully equipped. Two of the horses are used for pack purposes.

Part of their expenses are defrayed by selling post cards and giving roping exhibitions.

The Deutschland Arrives

The daring German navigators again added a brilliant achievement to their already long list when the big German U-boat Deutschland, carrying hundreds of tons of dye stuffs and mail, slipped quietly past the Virginia Capes during the latter part of Sunday night and came to anchor out of Baltimore in Chesapeake Bay. Another impossibility had been made possible by the thoroughness of German builders and the intelligence and daring of German navigators.

The pessimists who ridiculed the proposal as a fanciful dream, as a fabulous tale of the sea serpent or Flying Dutchman myth were amazed to read that the rumored voyage of a submarine merchantman through the North Sea across the Atlantic, passing the blockade of Great Britain and safe into the closely patrolled neutral zone which lies off the American coast, had not only been undertaken but actually accomplished without mishap.

This great war has furnished to history a list of marvelous achievements on land, on sea, in the air, under the ground and under the sea, but none of the marvelous feats of accomplishment surpass that of the Deutschland voyage.

In sixteen days the U-boat made the voyage, going three hundred miles out of her way.

Why? To demonstrate the capability of the German people?

Not solely because that does not always pay in war.

Primarily to get a valuable cargo to this port and to receive in return another valuable cargo of nickel and rubber, sorely needed by the German army.

Secondly, to test the possibility of undersea navigation by merchantmen.

How far Germany can go in the use of sub-boats to relieve the serious menace of British mastery of the sea is the big ultimate question.

That's the practical side of the achievement.

As to the other side—well may humanity ask what next?

Quiet Campaigns

With the passing of the Mexican crisis it is natural to suppose that activity in the realm of politics will take a more prominent position in the news and comments of the day.

That supposition, however, it must be admitted, finds little justification in the events as they have come along in turn during the last ten days. That there is very "little doing" in national politics is clearly evident. Issues of the ordinary political brand are scarce this year and the few which the political leaders have manufactured have boomeranged sadly. Candidates and leaders of the opposition to President Wilson have been compelled, by the rapid shifting of conditions, to adopt a policy of "watchful waiting" which makes them decidedly impatient but is, nevertheless a welcome relief to the people.

The voters of Ohio, upon purely local issues, are beginning now to show some real interest in local campaigns which are now well launched and under way.

There are many matters of importance concerning the welfare of the commonwealth, to be seriously considered by Ohio voters this fall and the issues are plainly made. So far, however, as national affairs are concerned, although it is well along in July there is practically no issue joined between the contending forces.

A remarkable condition in the history of American politics.

Changes Suggested

The Ohio State Bar Association is holding its annual meeting at Cedar Point and among other interesting suggestions made is that one by Judge E. B. Kinkead of Columbus, who suggests that the present three division system of Ohio courts of record be done away with and a new two division system adopted—one trial court and one review court.

The suggestion of Judge Kinkead is important for two reasons, the first because of the merit of the suggestion. If Judge Kinkead's suggestion is adopted it means less expense, less delay and less uncertainty of result—that's certain.

Whether the litigation of the state could be disposed of without three reviewing courts is questionable. However, objection could be done away with by increasing the court of review.

The suggestion is important for another reason. It is proof that the legal profession is awake to the fact that it's court procedure is sadly in need of change—revolutionary change and once the members of the bar realize the necessity for change in courts and procedures that change is certain to come sooner or later.

The lawyers are deserving of their reputation for ultra-conservatism, but it is only a question of time until the radicals will force a change in conditions and radicals will creep into the ranks of the legal profession just as they do into every other line of activity. They may not be so welcome there as they would be elsewhere, but they will get in and once in will make themselves heard.

Poetry For Today

A HAND ON THE SHOULDER.

When a man ain't got a cent,
And he's feeling kind of blue,
And the clouds hang dark and heavy
And won't let the sunshine through,

It's a great thing, O my brethren,
For a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

It makes a man feel curious;
It makes the tear drops start,
And you sort o' feel a flutter
In the region of the heart;
You can look up and meet his eyes;
You don't know what to say
When his hand is on your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

Oh, the world's a curious compound,
With its honey and its gall;
With its cares and bitter crosses—
But a good world after all.
And a good God must have made it—
Leastways, that is what I say
When a hand is on my shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

GIRL NEARLY DROWNS AS FRIENDS LAUGH

Others Think Expert Is Joking Until Gallant Young Man Pulls Her to Safety.

San Francisco.—A sensational rescue from drowning, in which the leading roles were played by Miss Jewel Welch, twenty years old and pretty, and Harry A. Clark, engineer with the Royal Insurance company, was staged in the waters of the Larkspur estuary.

Miss Welch, who with a party of friends was making a week end visit on board Clark's houseboat Rockaway, attempted to swim from the boat to the shore, 500 feet. She reached shore in safety and then plunged into the water to swim back to the ark.

Suddenly she was caught by the strong undertow of the stream and disappeared from sight. Friends on the deck of the boat, knowing that Miss Welch was an expert swimmer, believed that she was "doing stunts."

She finally appeared above the surface and cried for help, beating the water wildly.

Clark, who was standing on the deck fully clothed, plunged in and reached the spot just as she sank beneath the water. Clark dived and caught her by the hair.

Spectators on shore looked calmly on, thinking it was a moving picture thriller. In a few minutes Clark had the girl on board the boat.

Greatest Quartet In America Is Coming to Local Chautauqua

METROPOLITAN QUARTET.

ONLY an article of superior merit ever achieves in the minds of Americans the distinction of being called "standard." There is no exception to this rule in the realm of music. When a musical organization comes to be the basis of comparison by which similar organizations are judged it has achieved a position which comes to but few.

Such a proud position is occupied by the Metropolitan Male Quartet, known as the Master Singers of Chautauqua, which for a number of years past has been recognized as standard. To be as good as the Metropolitans has been considered the highest praise which could be bestowed upon a Lyceum or Chautauqua male quartet, and aspiring organizations have been proud indeed to be compared with them.

Four voices of superior merit unite to make this organization exceptional. As soloists the members of the company have won distinction. Unusual blending qualities make their ensemble work notable. They present male quartet singing at its highest point of development. Musical excellence is never permitted to be eclipsed by freak presentation or cheap burlesque.

When the Metropolitans come to the Chautauqua it will be worth your while to hear them if only for the purpose of noting how superlatively good a male quartet can be and how much the brand of quartet music has improved since the days when you aspired to be a member of a male quartet and disturbed the summer evenings with discordant attacks upon "Old Black Joe" and kindred classics.

The Metropolitans have even been called "the best" male quartet on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platform. That's a matter of personal opinion. You are entitled to yours, but don't decide without hearing them.

THE HERALD SOON TO HAVE A NEW HOME

Work on the Modern, Specially Planned Building Is to Be Commenced Immediately on South Fayette Street.

New Structure Will Be Commodious and Handsome Appearing.

Newest and Most Modern Equipment Is Now in Process of Erection, and Will Be Installed as Soon as the Building Is Completed.

The Herald is to have a new home!

And this home is to be thoroughly modern in every detail, with up-to-the-minute equipment, made necessary by the ever growing demands of the public for service, and because the citizens of Washington and Fayette county have demonstrated their desire for an independent, metropolitan newspaper.

The new home of The Herald will be located on South Fayette street, immediately south of the Gossard Garage, where the large lot has been purchased of Mr. George Inskip. The contract has been let for the erection of a modern building especially constructed for newspaper purposes. Work on the new block is to be commenced at once, and the structure, to be built of steel, brick, stone, concrete and tile, is to be completed and ready for occupancy not later than the middle of October.

The site fronts on Fayette street 41½ feet and extends back 165 feet to the alley. It is ideally located in the business district of the city within a few moments' walk from any part of the business section and offers great possibilities for a splendid newspaper plant—such as will be constructed.

The Herald Block is to be two stories and basement, with handsome pressed brick front. The two stories and basement will extend back a distance of 40 feet, while the first story will extend back a total distance of 110 feet. The entire structure is to be heated by steam and electrically lighted and equipped throughout.

In every way the structure will be an attractive addition to South Fayette street and to the city generally.

The business office, editorial and reportorial rooms will occupy the front part of the first floor and be entirely separate from the mechanical part of the plant. These rooms will be reached by a handsome tiled floor vestibule entrance, and the rooms will be lighted by large plate glass and prism glass windows.

The office and other rooms will be arranged and equipped with new and specially constructed fixtures.

The main composing room and press room will be 31 by 60 feet. The arrangement, with modern equipment, will give the composing rooms great capacity. This will be scientifically arranged so that the greatest efficiency may be obtained with the least effort. The arrangement and construction of the composing rooms has been planned especially for the newspaper plant. Nothing has been overlooked in providing light and air—plenty of both.

The basement rooms will be used for storage purposes, and the building from top to bottom and front to rear will be constructed along the most approved sanitary lines.

Terms of the contract call for an immediate beginning of the work, and its completion not later than October 15th of this year.

New machinery and equipment generally will be features of the new home of The Herald. This equipment includes a brand new Goss Comet press now in process of construction at Chicago with a capacity of 4,000 newspapers each hour. The press represents the very latest designs in printing machinery, and the blank paper in huge rolls is attached to the press and comes out in the printed and folded newspaper.

In addition to this newest and most up-to-date press, the most modern Linotype machines, new job presses and other equipment to correspond will be installed.

All machinery will be electrically driven, individual motors being used and all line shafting will thus be eliminated.

All antiquated machinery and other equipment will be cast aside giving more room and a plant, in every way, in keeping with demands of the public upon The Herald and the community in which it is printed and circulates.

For a long time the growing need of a new home and more modern equipment and larger facilities has been realized. The press of business being such that it was deemed necessary to install facilities to insure prompt service in every way. The construction of plans for the new home and equipment are the result.

While looking mainly to capacity and speed in equipment, the health and comfort of the folks who build The Herald every day, the appearance of the new home of The Herald has not been lost sight of.

It will be a structure which will be pleasing to the eye as well as one capacious and durable.

TAKING COAL VERY EXPENSIVE BUSINESS

A well known farmer residing a few miles north of this city and a farm hand who was with the farmer were brought to this city by Special Officer N. J. Fisher, of the D. T. & L. Railroad, Monday night about ten o'clock, and the farmer was fined $100 and the costs and the farm hand $10 and the costs for taking coal from the railroad.

Coal has been missed from cars at Fayette Junction for sometime, and receiving a tip Monday evening that there would be something doing about the coal cars later in the evening, Detective Fisher went to the scene and the arrests followed.

No part of either fine is to be remitted by Mayor Oster. Both men declared that never again would they be found in such a situation.

SMASHED WINDOW MUST FACE MUSIC

Hays Taylor, colored was picked up after a short chase, Monday evening, to answer to a charge of malicious destruction of property, filed against him by Dora Anderson, who charged that Taylor hurled a brick through the window of her home a few days ago, and performed other stunts of dangerous character.

It was claimed that Taylor was in Columbus, but he was finally started out of cover Monday evening, and it was necessary for the officers to open fire with their automatics before the man stopped. He was locked up and his hearing was to occur Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday.

The man may face other charges before he is released from custody.

JONES WOMAN IS SENTENCED TO THE "PEN"

Addie Bay Jones Enters Plea of Guilty of Killing Monk Sammons and Will Be Taken to Ohio Penitentiary Tomorrow to Serve One to 20 Years.

Addie Bay Jones, following a plea of guilty to a charge of manslaughter for the killing of Monk Sammons, has been sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for an indeterminate period, which in the case of manslaughter is one to twenty years.

The woman, who was represented by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, was to have been tried upon a charge of murder in the second degree, her case having been set for Tuesday of this week.

Realizing that the odds were against her acquittal and desiring to escape the trying ordeal of a long trial, the woman expressed her willingness to plead guilty to a charge of manslaughter, and this was permitted by the court.

The woman faced Judge Carpenter late Monday afternoon and plead guilty, whereupon she was sentenced to the penitentiary, to be taken to that institution Wednesday.

Mrs. Jones had little to say before sentence was passed, other than asking for the leniency of the court.

Her crime consisted of the shooting of Monk Sammons because the latter had been with another woman, the act being prompted by jealousy.

After a hard fight for life the wounded man passed away some 17 days after the shooting, death resulting from a hemorrhage due to the wound in his lungs.

Mrs. Parker Tanzey of Columbus has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, this week.

FRENCH EXTEND THE LINE

Now Menacing the Fortress of Peronne.

STORM GERMAN POSITIONS

British Make Only Slight Progress on the Somme, Suffering Reverse in the Trones Wood—Russians Make Gains in Their Drive Against Kovel. Austrians Repel Italian Attacks. Verdun Campaign.

London, July 11.—Paris reports further progress on the Somme. The French carried by storm a number of positions and extended their lines menacingly closer to the fortress of Peronne.

The British made only slight progress and suffered a reverse in the Trones wood.

It must be emphasized, however, that the chief reason for the advance on the part of the French and the slow progress of the British is the fact that the Germans concentrate the whole fury of their counter offensive operations upon General Sir Douglas Haig's troops, practically ignoring the French. They know full well that the French advance must sooner or later come to a standstill if the British do not advance correspondingly, and, since the French carried the greater part of the ground in the initial onrush of the drive, the Germans seem bent upon holding the British back at all cost, hoping that the French progress will automatically cease.

It is in the Trones wood that the Germans have been putting up one of the most stubborn fights since the Somme drive began. The wood has a triangle shape measuring some 400 yards from north to south, with a southern base of 400 yards. The Germans have converted it into a veritable labyrinth of trenches and wire entanglements. The battle in the wood is still raging full blast.

Paris reported success in the Champagne, west of Butte de Mesnil. Here French troops, in two attacks, penetrated the German first line trenches on a front of 500 meters. The capture of only ten prisoners indicates the Germans did not render very stubborn resistance.

Germans Active at Verdun.

The forces of the German crown prince are still pounding heavily against the French positions at Froide Terre, Fleury and the Fumil wood. In the Verdun sector, but, so far as the official statements show, the actions have been confined to bombardments.

There has apparently been no halt of the Russian advance toward Kovel in Volhynia. The German defenses along the Stokhod river have been unable to stay the progress of the Russians, who, though strongly opposed, have crossed the river at various points.

In the Dvina sector and east of Baranovichi the Germans have delivered strong counter attacks and are undertaking extensive offensive operations.

The fighting between the Italians and Austrians continues with unabated fury, the Austrian official statement describing the repulse of Alpine forces between the Brenta and the Etsch rivers.

The German war office claims that all French and British attacks on the Somme failed ultimately. Wherever a temporary footing was gained by the allies, German counter attacks "quickly ejected the enemy," the statement asserts. It is admitted that Trones wood was penetrated, and that the French won some ground on the Maisonneuve farm and around Barleux, but it is added that all ground temporarily lost was captured later and consolidated.

OF COURSE

(By American Press)

Washington, July 11.—Pending further investigation, the United States will view the German submarine Deutschland as an undersea freight ship, entitled to ply its trade between German and American ports.

This government's preliminary attitude was determined on following report of Collector Ryan of Baltimore, who stated that the Deutschland did not carry arms, that she was manned by a merchant crew and that her papers were in order. Acting Secretary of State Polk decided to accept the presumption that the Deutschland is what she is represented to be, pending an investigation to prove or disprove the announced status of the vessel.

by direction of the state department, Captain C. F. Hughes of the navy, formerly inspector of ships for the general board, has been assigned to give an expert opinion as to whether the Deutschland is or is not a warship. He will be assisted by other naval officers.

Meanwhile the British and French governments have communicated what amounts to a protest against the Deutschland's presence in an American port. The form of this communication is a request for the United States to determine the exact status of the vessel.

BAY STATE

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., July 11.—Forty militiamen of Company L, Ninth Massachusetts infantry, were stricken with ptomaine poisoning and are still in the regiment field hospital. Major Fred L. Bogan of Boston, commanding the regiment hospital corps, declared most of the men would recover. Poisoning was traced to canned salmon.

In addition to the national guard troops, which are estimated by brigade officers to be at least 15,000, there are 5,000 regular troops in El Paso, Fort Bliss and the border near here.

Plans for the biggest war game ever undertaken in the United States are now being given the finishing touches at General George Bell's headquarters at Fort Bliss, and the militia brigades here, as well as the regulars, are to undergo the stiffest kind of a preparation for possible hostilities, the work including night alarms, night marches and calls to repel attack under every sort of condition.

WILSON SPEAKS TO BIG THROGS

Favors Peace Through Mutual Understanding.

Detroit, July 11.—Speaking to 3,500 people in Arcadia hall, hundreds of whom were delegates to the World's Salesmanship congress, President Wilson said that fighting results in hatreds that ruin opportunities for opening trade and civilization. "We must respect the sovereignty of Mexico," the president said. "I say this for the benefit of those who wish to butt in. Mexico feels we do not wish to help her, but to possess her. Talk is due to the manner in which some have tried to exploit her possessions. I will not help these men."

The president declared that the merchant marine, which some are "so slow in giving up," will be a great help to the business interests of the United States.

In order to gain foreign business, however, he added, it will be necessary for American business men to adapt the goods to the demands of other countries and not try to force their own ideas on other markets.

At Toledo the president made a five minute talk at the Union station. "The United States will go to war only in case of unmistakable necessity," he said. "Our rights, our border citizens and our sovereignty must be respected. We will respect Mexico's sovereignty in return."

The president was met and welcomed by Congressman Isaac R. Sherwood. Congressman Sherwood lauded the chief executive in a short talk, declaring the president stands only for peace, progress and prosperity.

LOOKS GOOD

(By American Press)

London, July 11.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that the bill for the establishment of a government for Ireland, as agreed to by the bulk of the Nationalists and Unionists, will be submitted to parliament next week. The premier urged the house to lend its support to the bill, emphasizing that the present opportunity may never occur again. The bill will contain the provision for the exclusion of the six Ulster counties. Under the plan the military and naval forces remain under the control of the imperial parliament. The imperial government will appoint the judges of the appeal court, which is to be established in Dublin. The bill will remain in force during the war and twelve months thereafter.

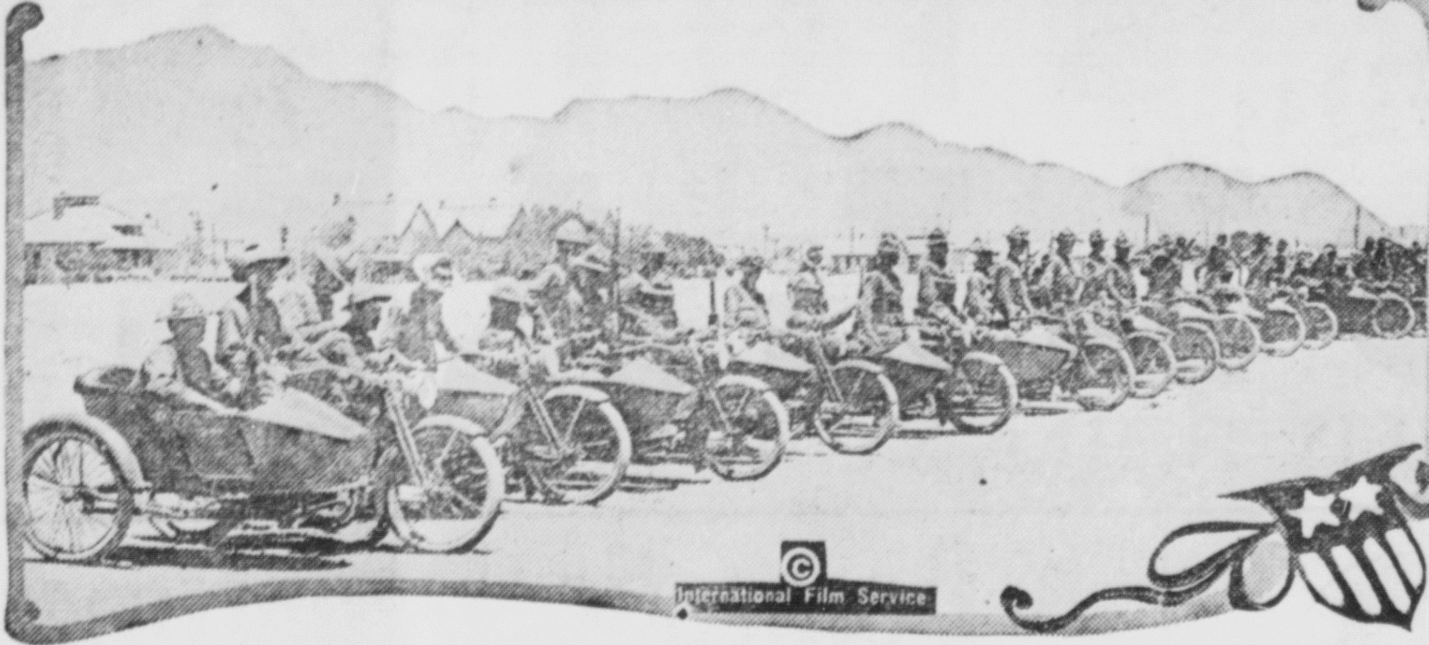

The Irish parliament will consist of the members at present returned to the imperial parliament. The Dublin appeal court will be appointed by the imperial executive.

REVENUE MEASURE BY HOUSE

Designed to Raise Approximately $200,000,000.

VOTE STOOD 240 TO 140

Thirty Republicans and One Independent Join With the Democrats in Supporting the Measure—Amendment Adopted Striking Out Tax on Bankers—Features of the Bill as Passed by the House.

Washington, July 11.—By a vote of 240 to 140, the administration's revenue bill, designed to raise approximately $200,000,000 additional revenue, passed the house.

Democratic members voted solidly for the bill and thirty Republicans and one Independent supported it.

The minority succeeded in amending the bill in several particulars, but no vital change was made in any section except that relating to the levy of special internal taxes. The house struck from this section the tax on bankers. As reported the bill carried a tax on bankers of $1 per $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits.

Several changes were made in the tariff commission section. The salaries of the commissioners were reduced from $10,000 to $7,500, and the prohibition against former members of congress serving on the commission was eliminated.

The bill as passed creates a tariff commission, imposes a protective tariff on dyestuffs, repeals present stamp taxes and provides for new taxes on incomes, inheritances and war munitions profits.

Ohio bankers have been bombarding the members with telegrams opposing the tax on their capital. With the aid of Democratic votes, the Wood amendment, striking out the tax on bankers, was adopted, 202 to 167. The Ohio delegation divided almost on party lines on the Wood amendment. Representative Ashbrook was the only Ohio Democratic member voting for it. The Ohio Republican members all supported it.

LOOKS BRIGHT

(By American Press)

Baltimore, July 11.—Captain Paul Koenig of the commercial submarine Deutschland, supplementing previous statements, told how his vessel had lain at the bottom of the English channel one whole night, while British warships passed over it; how he and his crew played the gramophone beneath the waves; how they had lived on champagne and the best of foods; how they had openly cruised 3,800 miles, submerging only a few times for a few hours and doing only 90 miles under the surface during the entire trip. He also predicted the collapse of the British starvation blockade. The captain said: "We are building for trade with the neutral countries great submarines that will go 13,000 miles without replenishment of fuel supply, that will carry, when we are ready to supply it, 1,000 or more tons of freight. Several of these boats are now building. The next one to come to this country will be named the Bremen and she will reach American shores within eight weeks. I may not reveal just when or just where she will be heard from on this side, but what I am telling you may be taken as a fact."

Simple ceremonies and a small attendance marked the funeral services held over the body of Mrs. Hetty Green, known as the world's richest woman, when it was interred at Bellows Falls, Vt. Mrs. Green was buried in the family plot adjoining Immanuel Episcopal church. The grave is beside that of her husband, Edward H. Green. A plain granite shaft, inscribed only with the family name, marks the spot.

REPORTS PLEASE PLAGUE FIGHTERS

Decrease In Number of Deaths From Infantile Paralysis.

New York, July 11.—There were fourteen deaths from infantile paralysis during the last twenty-four hours, a decrease compared with the previous twenty-four hours. There is an increase, however, in the number of new cases, 103 having been reported. Sixty-eight of those are in Brooklyn, and 39 in Manhattan. The total death toll of the epidemic thus far is 238. Altogether 1,083 have been infected.

Health Commissioner Emerson was optimistic for the first time since the plague began. He said the decrease in the number of deaths was encouraging and the cases are not jumping alarmingly. Fear and imagination on the part of the parents do a great deal toward making the situation look worse than it is. Every baby that has a stomach ache or a cough, or some other slight ailment, is immediately carried by a solicitous mother to the hospital to be investigated, or an inspector is sent for.

Six thousand street cleaners have been put to work to clear up and sluice down all the city thoroughfares. The police are on a sharp lookout for all offenders of the sanitation laws. In the Tombs police court alone there are 148 violators arraigned.

ONLY 43,000 MOVED

New York, July 11.—Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the department of the east, announced that after three weeks since President Wilson's order for the mobilization of the national guard only 43,000 men have been sent to the front out of a possible 130,000 in his command of twenty-two states and the District of Columbia. This means, he declared, that there are 90,000 men yet to be sent to the border.

RIDES A FISH TO DEATH.

Hiram Also Keeps His Prize Despite State Game Wardens.

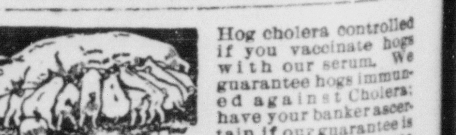

Appleton, Wis.—Riding a fish and killing it is not catching it. Such is the decision of the state game wardens in the case of Hiram Beveridge.

The water in the Fox river has been low of late, and Hiram saw a six foot sturgeon in a shallow pool below the John street dam. He tried to catch it by the tail, but failed. Then he jumped and landed on its back. It was worse than riding a bucking broncho, but he seized a stone when the fish was floundering in shallow water and beat it to death.

Hiram's knees were scraped raw and his legs cut, but he got seventy pounds of fish and furnished the basis for a new legal decision to ring down the gages.

AGAIN TURN TO RECRUITING

Mustering Work Completed in the Eighth, Fifth and Sixth Infantry and All But Two Companies of the Fourth—Smallpox Patients Removed From Camp Willis—Problem Put Up to Governor.

Columbus, July 11.—Mustering work at Camp Willis has been completed now in the Eighth, Fifth and Sixth Infantry and all except Companies A of Cardington and F of Circleville of the Fourth. Authorization to muster in the latter two companies has been received.

It is still a race between the cavalry and the Eighth Infantry as to which one will be the first reported to the war department as "reasonably equipped" to move to the border. Each completed turning its present property over to the federal government. To those whose equipment is found to be unserviceable and those that have none, new equipment will be issued. After a week of mustering, physical examining and rejecting in the militia efforts again are turned to recruiting. Officers who prided themselves on having their commands up to war strength find them sadly depleted after the federal examiners get through with them.

Troop B of Columbus, First squadron of cavalry, which presented a full quota of 100 men, all of whom were considered "good bets," lost eleven men and have opened a recruiting office again. Determining whether Ohio national guardsmen are rejected by federal mustering officers at Camp Willis shall remain in the organized state militia or be rejected from these ranks as well, is a matter which Major Robert W. Mearns, chief mustering officer, has submitted to Governor Frank B. Willis. The governor has the question under advisement and will announce his decision soon.

The municipal health department will look after the two guardsmen at the mobilization camp who are victims of smallpox. The officials caused them to be removed to an emergency hospital outside the city limits. The two men who have the disease are: Dwight Morris, Defiance, and Charles Steele, Napoleon.

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

COLONIAL.

H. B. Warner, Triangle star and one of the greatest artists in the matter of facial expression in the movies, opens the bill at the Colonial Monday and Tuesday, appearing in "The Market of Vain Desires," a cleverly wrought society drama centered about the activities of a girl who set out to marry a title.

"Love's Crucible," an intensely engaging interpretation of the great emotion in all its phases, comes Wednesday starring pretty Frances Nelson.

De Wolf Hopper and Fay Tincher, incomparable comedians return Thursday and Friday in another Triangle mirth-provoker, "Mr. Goode the Samaritan."

Grace DeCarlton is the heroine of "Betrayed," a strong Western, Saturday.

PALACE.

Robert Mantel, famous tragedian, and Genevieve Hamper, who will be particularly remembered for their work in "The Green Eyed Monster," appear on the Palace screen Tuesday in a late Fox release of similar action, "The Spider and the Fly."

Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno, favorite Vita pair, appear in a startling Vitaphone feature Wednesday mysteriously entitled "On Her Wedding Night."

V. L. S. E. Thursday and Friday presents the great stage performer, William Gillette, in the character he immortalized in legitimate production, "Sherlock Holmes," directly adapted from Gillette's stage success and the novel by Sir A. Conan Doyle.

"Peg o' the Ring," third chapter, and Universal Weekly Saturday.

WONDERLAND.

Pauline Frederick, accounted by her admirers the most beautiful woman in the pictures, is the star of Wednesday's Paramount, the title of which has not been learned and will be announced later.

John Barrymore, member of the great Barrymore family, whose winning personality has made him thousands of "bosom friends" among the movie audiences, leads a happy Paramount Friday named "Nearly a King."

Tuesday—Selig News Weekly.

Thursday—Essanay News Weekly and two reels of comics.

Saturday—"The Shadow of Doubt," three reel feature.

PICNIC GROUNDS HISTORIC SPOT

Until the recent Fish and Game picnic held on one of the large farms owned by Mr. Scott Beatty in the Waterloo vicinity, few knew that indications point to the existence of a wonderfully interesting memorial of the early activities of the North American Indians.

On what is known as the old Waldron farm, handed down to the present owner by his father, the late Mr. I. N. Beatty, is what would seem to have been one of the Indians' ceremonial rings used for the dances which were weird and picturesque features of the life of the Red Men.

This ring is 100 feet in diameter, 5 or 6 feet wide and worn to a depth of three feet, presumably by the feet of the dancers.

It is a most unusual place and its inspection recalled traditions which claim that this old Waldron farm was in early days the site of an Indian village.

There are mounds laid out as if for the purpose of defense and from them three high points rise towards the heavens as if to provide lookouts from which sentinels overlooked the valley and plains below.

So great was the interest taken in this Indian memorial that its claims to authentication as one of the early Indian landmarks of Ohio will be brought to the attention of Prof. Mills, of the Ohio State University, who has been prominently identified with Indian research work and who has accomplished much in this connection in the nearby counties of Ross and Adams.

Prof. Mills, his wife and daughter are now in Southern Ohio exploring along the lines of the Indians' early activities.

The men of the Fish and Game Association were much interested in learning from Mr. Beatty all that he could tell them of the Indian traditions centered around his farm. They also enjoyed viewing pictures and trophies brought by Mr. Beatty from Florida, where he spends the winters at his cottage on Coronado Beach, and indulges in his favorite sport—fishing.

Mr. Beatty brought over to the picnic the latest equipment for modern Isaac Waltons—in the deep sea fishing tackle and all accessories, the envy of every fisherman ambitious to land a big catch.

A PERTINENT QUESTION

Everybody knew that Mr. W. B. Rogers gallantly escorted his daughter, on a horse back ride to the Junior Camp Sunday afternoon and it was the correct supposition that the fact that Miss Rogers' escort for the day had been called away was responsible for the ride rather than Mr. Rogers' devotion to horse back riding.

But why, having had his appetite whetted by the ride, did Mr. Rogers turn over his mount to his son, reluctant to leave camp, and motor home?

No reward has as yet been offered for the answer, but it is a pertinent question.

Conscience Money.

A West Virginia man sent a farmer $3 in payment for a watermelon he stole fifteen years ago. If every boy that ever lived in the country were to develop a conscience like that the farmers would own most of the money in the world.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

A NEGRO preacher was edified on one occasion by the recital of a dream had by a member of his church. "All dis time," said the narrator, "I was a-dreamin' dat I was in ole Satan's dominions. I tell you, pahson, dat sho' was a bad dream!" "Was any white men there?" asked the dusky divine. "Sho'—plenty of 'em," the other hastened to assure his minister. "What was they doin'?" "Every one of 'em," was the answer, "was a-holdin' a cullud pussen between him an' de fire!"—New York Times.

CHANCE TO AID THE LOCAL BAND

Everybody now has an opportunity to aid the Washington Band and keep it together and up to a standard never before reached.
This opportunity is afforded by papers now in the hands of Mr. James Whelpley, where funds will be received for band concerts, the first of which will probably be given Wednesday night of next week.

During the past few days some 150 persons have been given the opportunity to aid in the commendable enterprise, and of that number only two persons did not give toward the concerts, and these two fellows could find no excuse for refusing, it is stated.
To insure a series of concerts all public spirited citizens must respond with a small sum toward concerts and to indicate to the Washington Band that their efforts are appreciated; that Washington and Fayette county citizens believe in them and will stand by them in making the organization a Civic Institution.

Citizens are urged not to wait until the subscription paper is presented, but to go to Mr. Whelpley or send amount to him without delay.
